Located on Indiana State University's campus between the east and west units of Reeve Hall, 550-555 North 6th Street.

Would you like to do another drawing? If so, try this:

What if these figures were from an ancient world, what would you draw around them to show the world they are in? If there are tourists visiting this sculpture, what size would they be in comparison to the stone figures?

Also, ask an adult to post a photo of your work on Facebook and tag @wabashvalleyartspaces, or email it to info@wabashvalleyartspaces.com and we will post it on the Art Spaces Instagram page.

This coloring page was created by Wyatt Lawson based on a sculpture by Madeline Wiener, an artist from Colorado. Madeline often creates “bench people,” sculptures you can sit on and take selfies with! You can visit A Reading Place on the Indiana State University Campus at 550-555 N. 6th Street.

Art Spaces, Inc. is an organization in Terre Haute dedicated to making Terre Haute come alive with public art that celebrates the history and character of our city, and builds lively and spirited public places for everyone to enjoy.

The Coloring Page Project is sponsored by the Frederick Benson Trust
