Would you like to do another drawing? If so, try this:

The sculpture has many planes or flat surfaces. Treat each plane with a different texture. You can draw your own texture by adding dots or you can take the paper outside in nature and see which textures you can find and use as rubbings under your paper.

Also, ask an adult to post a photo of your work on Facebook and tag @wabashvalleyartspaces, or email it to info@wabashvalleyartspaces.com and we will post it on the Art Spaces Instagram page.

This coloring page was created by Wyatt Lawson based on a sculpture by Lauren Ewing, an artist from Indiana and New York. Lauren studied architecture and paid a lot of attention to what kinds of house styles stay popular for a long time. You can visit Composite House for Terre Haute in Gilbert Park at 14 ½ Street and Wabash Avenue.
